

REMARKS

Claims 1-18 have been cancelled and rewritten as new claims 19 - 36, respectively. Reexamination and reconsideration of the application, as amended, are respectfully requested.

Applicants submit herewith a new declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying the application by application number and filing date and executed in accordance with 37 CFR 1.66 or 1.68 by all inventors.

The various rejections of claims 1-18 are made moot by the cancellation of claims 1-18. It is respectfully submitted that claims 1-18 have been rewritten as new claims 19-36 in a manner which fully complies with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 112.

Applicants submit that the term "POST" is a term known to those of ordinary skill in the art. In HTML, one can specify two different submission methods for a form. The method is specified inside a FORM element, using the METHOD attribute. The difference between METHOD="GET" (the default) and METHOD="POST" is primarily defined in terms of form data encoding.

In view of the above, each of the presently pending claims in this application is believed to be in immediate condition for allowance. Accordingly, the Examiner is respectfully requested to withdraw the outstanding rejection of the claims and to pass this application to issue. If it is determined that a telephone conference would expedite the prosecution of this application, the Examiner is invited to telephone the undersigned at the number given below.

In the event the U.S. Patent and Trademark office determines that an extension and/or other relief is required, applicant petitions for any required relief including extensions of time and authorizes the Commissioner to charge the cost of such petitions and/or other fees due in connection with the filing of this document to Deposit Account No. 03-1952 referencing docket no.

546202000100.

Dated: November 4, 2005

Respectfully submitted,
